We will discuss some recent conjectures of Alexander Berkovich and Will Jagy which express linear combinations of twists of certain theta series of ternary quadratic forms in terms of a single theta function (for the sum of three squares), how they arose, and various techniques for understanding them.